Photographic Memory: Preserving Our Visual History

The RCC College Archive contains over 2,000 photographs charting the visual history of the college from its founding in the mid 1960's to the current day. Thanks to grant funding from the North Carolina Preservation Consortium, we are now able to rehouse these delicate materials and preserve them for future generations to enjoy.

Stayed tuned for updates on this project as we work to make these materials available for viewing.
