Lumberton, NC 28360
Exit 22 & I-95
Building 11-Room 1108

Course Goal:

This forty-hour course trains selected officers to become a Field Training Officer. Lecture/Practical application based, information will be presented that helps the FTO develop an officer with a positive and professional attitude which will in turn provide the agency with top level entry officers.

Primary Course Objectives:

1. Recognize inefficiencies and proficiencies regarding the training of a 1st year officer.
2. Properly and objectively evaluate the performance of an officer.
3. Provide the officer with motivation to enhance the learning process thereby developing a top level entry officer beneficial not only to the department but to the public as well.

Instructor:

Johnny Barnes is a retired Investigative Unit Police Captain. Barnes currently serves as an auxiliary Captain with the Lumberton Police Department and has over 30 years of law enforcement experience. Captain Barnes uses his many years of experience as a patrol supervisor and investigative unit supervisor as well as up to date training information to present this program.

NOTE: This course is free to all in-state law enforcement personnel.

Enrollment in this course is limited. Please contact Burnis Wilkins at 910-272-3652 or email your intent to attend to bwilkins@robeson.edu
