Library, Computer, Equipment, and Internet User Agreement

The Anne Moss-Biggs Library provides computer and Internet access to students, instructors, staff, and visitors. Library computers are intended for patrons to conduct research and to communicate with others in support of the College's educational mission. Students, faculty, staff, public patrons, and campus visitors are expected to use computer resources in an ethical, legal, and responsible manner.

The RCC Internet and Computer Network Acceptable Use Policy (Campus Standards Rule 12 in the RCC Student Handbook) applies to all computers and equipment located in the Library, as well as to the College as a whole. At the Library Director's discretion, patrons may be assessed for the replacement of any damaged computers, laptops, projectors, or other equipment. By using any of these technologies, all patrons acknowledge notice of, and agree to comply with, the RCC Privacy Policy, and to the rules outlined in I(D)3 of the Anne Moss-Biggs Library Handbook, which is located in PDF format on the RCC website.

By checking the box below, you agree to the terms of the Anne Moss-Biggs Library, Computer, Equipment, and Internet Use Policy.
