A. MISSION, PURPOSE, AND VISION

The mission of the Anne Moss-Biggs Library at Robeson Community College (hereinafter, “Library”) is to support and advance the long-term goals of the College by promoting information literacy in a user-centered facility, which is equipped with physical and digital environments that enhance research and instruction. That is, the purpose of the Library is to provide access to the most appropriate, accurate, and high-quality research resources in support of the College’s curricula in an instructive, friendly, and interactive learning environment.

The Library advances teaching, learning, and research at RCC by:

- Teaching students to be successful, ethical information seekers
- Facilitating access to information resources
- Providing welcoming spaces for reading and intellectual discovery
- Assisting workforce and community development by providing research assistance and open computer access
- Promoting the innovative adoption of emerging learning technologies

The vision of the Library is to be regionally recognized as a technologically-advanced, user-focused center of research, learning, and innovation. We will be leaders in developing and utilizing the talents of everyone who works in the Library to achieve excellence in service to students, faculty, staff, and to our community. We will provide leadership and support for College initiatives and priorities. We will expand our information services beyond the Library’s physical boundaries, so as to serve the entire RCC community through an enhanced Web presence, through the College’s course management system, and through other outreach efforts. We will be a campus leader in the promotion of information literacy.

RCC Library patrons must abide by all of the College's rules and policies regarding campus conduct. Users are expected to assist in the maintenance of a quiet atmosphere, which is conducive to studying. Library users are expected to respect the facility's furnishings; this includes cleaning up after one's self. If after a verbal warning, a patron does not cease any objectionable behavior, staff may ask the patron to leave the library. Library staff will document these occurrences and report them to the Director of Campus Operations within 24 hours.

C. Noise

The RCC Library is the only quiet place on campus for students to work on their academics. Therefore, it is imperative that all library users refrain from making disruptive noises, including extracurricular talking. Users who do not comply with this rule will be given one verbal warning; thereafter, those who continue to make inappropriate noises will be asked to leave the library and

III. LIBRARY SERVICES

A. COLLEGE I.D.S & LIBRARY CARDS

RCC I.D. cards are made in the Library during all open hours. Your RCC I.D. card doubles as your Library card.

- A $5.00 charge will apply to cards reprinted to students for lost, damaged, or stolen cards. This fee is paid at the RCC Cashier's Window in Building 2, and students must show proof of payment in order for the Library to make a new ID card.
- Community patrons may check out materials; however, they must present valid photo identification and obtain an RCC I.D. card.
- Per campus security, all head wear (headwear and/or facial scarves, etc.) must be removed for I.D. photos. Exceptions can be made with special permission for cultural or religious reasons.

F. LOST & DAMAGED MATERIALS

For lost materials, the patron will be charged with replacement costs (unless the student replaces the item themselves), as well as a $5.00 processing fee. Library materials should not be marked in, defaced, destroyed, or altered in any way. Anyone doing so will be required to pay for the replacement of the item, as outlined above. Persons with fines, or overdue materials, are required to settle their account with the Library before checking out new materials, registering, graduating, or requesting transcripts.

G. INTERLIBRARY LOANS

In addition to the Library's ability to borrow from within the CCLINC system (a consortium of Community College Libraries in North Carolina), the Library also has the ability to request material loans nationwide through OCLC (Online Computer Library Center). Patrons can ask any Library staff member to search for, and request, items which are held by other libraries. Up to five interlibrary loan requests may be made at one time. Books are loaned free of charge; however, if any lost or damaged fees are charged by the lending Library, those charges become the responsibility of the patron.

Regarding journal/magazine articles, every effort will be made to obtain articles from lending libraries that do not charge; however, in the event that a charge is made, the cost will be passed on to the requesting patron.

Finally, the College requires that patrons clear up all existing fees owed to the Library before interlibrary loan requests will be processed.

H. PRINTING & COPYING

The RCC campus uses a print management system called PaperCut. Enrolled RCC students will receive a small, free allotment to their PaperCut accounts with which to print. This allotment will be available on the first day of their classes. Students who need additional prints are able to add funds to their PaperCut accounts by (1) using the PaperCut portal and inputting a debit/credit card; or by paying cash at the Cashier's Window in Building 3.

C. RESOLVING ISSUES WITH PAPER CUT

Curriculum Students may contact the I.T. Help Desk for assistance with issues related to printing, such as if you believe that there has been a printing malfunction. However, if a printing problem or issue occurs at the Library, students should confer with the Director of Learning Resource Services for a resolution. No cash refunds will be issued for any reason.

D. RESERVING STUDY ROOMS

RCC students who wish to reserve one of the Library's two study rooms, may do so online through the LibCal system. A link to the room reservation system can be found on the Library's website.

E. SERVICES FOR DISTANCE LEARNERS

To ensure equitable instruction and guidance to both seated and distance learning students, the RCC Library provides convenient links to program-specific research guides

- i. Moodle

A specifically-designed RCC Library course module can be found in the college's course management system, Moodle, into which all current students are automatically enrolled.

ii. Online Research Guides

The RCC Librarians have created a variety of online research guides, which direct patrons to the Library's resources (in all formats) that are appropriate for their research.

ii. Remote Access

The RCC Library utilizes a proxy server so that RCC students, staff, and faculty may access the Library's e-resources from off-campus. Users will be directed to a landing page from which they should enter their RCC network accounts (full email address & password).

F. LIBRARY INSTRUCTION

Faculty may request bibliographic instruction for groups of students by emailing the Director of Learning Resource Services, or via the room booking form when reserving use of the Library's Instruction Lab through LibCal.

General Library orientation teaches basic library skills, such as: how to locate library materials, effective Internet search strategies, and how to access and search NC Live and other databases. Custom library instruction focuses on the skills and resources necessary to complete a particular assignment that students have been assigned in an RCC course.

IV. LEARNING RESOURCES

The Library provides access to learning resources in a variety of formats, including print, electronic, and online; all of which support the College's varied curricula. Refer to the Library's website for up-to-date information about the collection.

A. PHYSICAL COLLECTION

The physical collection is housed on the main floor of the Library, which is located in Building 4 of the Lumberton campus. The collection consists of over 20,000 titles, including books, audiobooks, magazines, journals, newspapers, reference materials, images, videos, and a select archival collection.

B. DATABASES

RCC students, faculty, and staff also have access to NC LIVE, a collection of over 100 databases and websites of quality research materials, provided by the State Library of North Carolina. NC LIVE includes thousands of e-books, full-text journal, magazine, and newspaper articles.

The Library also subscribes to a multitude of electronic databases that enhance the learning resources for various programs of study, as well as address the needs of RCC's distance learning population. Access to these electronic databases is available on campus and remotely via a proxy server.

For ease of use, the RCC Librarians have created online research guides, which contain links to the Library's databases.

C. ELECTRONIC BOOKS

The Library has access to over 1.2 million electronic book titles. In addition to the e-books available through NC LIVE, RCC has independently purchased thousands of other electronic titles to supplement its print collection.

D. CONSORTIA MEMBERSHIPS

RCC is a member of the Community College Libraries in North Carolina consortium (CCLINC), which is comprised of 25 of the 58 community colleges in the NCCCS. Benefits of this membership include access to in-house and consortia holdings via a web-based catalog. The Library can request books for RCC patrons from the other CCLINC libraries via an interlibrary loan service.

In addition to CCLINC's interlibrary loan services, the Library is a member of OCLC. OCLC publishes and maintains WorldCat, the largest online public access catalog in the world. WorldCat displays holding records from public and private libraries worldwide; thus, facilitating discovery of materials available at other libraries nationally.

Finally, the RCC Library is a member of the Carolina Consortium, which allows the Library to take advantage of competitive group pricing on select resources.

E. ONLINE PUBLIC ACCESS CATALOG

Benefits of CCLINC membership include access to in-house and consortium holdings via a web-based catalog, iLink. Patrons can search the Library's holdings from any computer with Internet access.

F. Discovery Service

The library utilizes Ex Libris's Summon, which is a discovery solution that enables patrons to search the library's holdings (both print and digital) through a simple, user-friendly interface.

G. OFF-CAMPUS/REMOTE ACCESS

Remote access is limited to RCC students, staff, and faculty. Patrons should use their MyRCC Network Account (email and password) to logon to the proxy server when not on the RCC Internet network.

First semester ECHS students, who are not yet issued an RCC network account, must use the NCKnows link on the bottom left of the NC LIVE homepage to access NC LIVE. Simply select 'Robeson Community College' from the dropdown box and click 'Next.' Please refer to the RCC Library's Moodle page for password information, or call us at (910) 272-3327.

V. COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT POLICY

A. SELECTION PROCEDURES

Faculty, student, and staff material requests are welcomed and actively sought out by RCC Library staff. Selection priority is given to materials that support and enhance the educational goals of the College. To assist in reaching these goals, it is important that department heads and faculty take an active interest in Library materials selection. However, final purchase decisions are made by the professional Library staff, who evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the total collection within the constraints of the materials budget.

RCC employees are polled yearly for serial recommendations and faculty in new RCC programs are personally contacted by Library staff and asked to develop a prioritized list of desired purchases.

Purchasing considerations include general popularity, cost, scholarship, relevancy, and alternate availability in digital format, e.g., in one of the Library's databases. Faculty, students, and staff can formally request materials for purchase via email (<mailto:Library@robeson.edu>) or by submitting their ideas via our online suggestion form.

Collection development priorities will be established using the following criteria*:

- i. Library staff will determine which courses may have the highest student requirements for learning resources. FTE figures will be used to determine enrollment in the college's curriculum programs.
- ii. Library staff will then earmark those classes that are anticipated to make use of Library resources. This is accomplished by communication with faculty and by past usage.
- iii. Library staff will determine if the existing collection has the breadth, depth, and size to support the curricula.

*Documentation supporting these criteria, such as email requests and circulation reports, will be kept for two fiscal years.

In addition to the above prioritization process, Library staff must consider the following:

- i. Collection development for new programs
- ii. Budget constraints
- iii. External accreditors and other agency requirements
- iv. Access to online materials

B. GIFTS

Donors of material gifts or donations to the RCC Library must complete the Library's Gift of Deed Form. All donators will then receive letters of acknowledgement from the institution. No monetary value will be assigned to these items by RCC, and the decision whether or not to incorporate the materials into the collection will be determined by the Director of Learning Resource Services.

C. DE-SELECTION PROCEDURES

The permanent removal of materials, physical or electronic is referred to as deselection. This practice helps a collection be at its most useful to students and faculty.

Monographs are reviewed and withdrawn, if necessary, on a biannual basis. Appropriate faculty are asked to review relevant subject areas, within a specified timeframe, before the Library begins the withdrawal process. Health science titles must be evaluated on an annual basis, to ensure collection accuracy and currency for accreditation. The Library will not retain any titles published more than five years from the date of examination.

Circulation data is reviewed to determine the extent of use of materials of various types. Purchase decisions for multiple copies of outstanding or high demand titles are made when appropriate.

Serials are inventoried annually in the fall semester and withdrawn based upon curricula needs, access, and usage statistics. Based on this review, de-selection decisions are made.

The RCC Library's staff makes all final material withdrawal decisions. Factors considered when removing materials include: physical condition, publication date, circulation/usage data, multiple copies, cost involved in renewal, currency and accuracy of content, and relevancy.

D. PROCEDURES FOR CHALLENGED MATERIAL

Despite the care taken to select valuable and appropriate materials for student and faculty use, occasional objections to a selection may be made. Any challenged material should be brought to the attention of the Director of Learning Resource Services. The RCC Library subscribes to the belief of the ALA Bill of Rights, that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies and procedures should guide their services:

The Director of Learning Resources will refer the matter to the Learning Resource Services Committee and will:

- i. Place challenged material on reserve so that members of the Learning Resource Services Committee may read, reread, and/or study it.
- ii. Check reviews of the challenged material to get the general feeling of outside reviewers.
- iii. Arrange a meeting with the complainant and the Learning Resource Services Committee. The chair will facilitate the meeting to carefully weigh the value and fault of the challenged material. By majority vote, the committee should then make a recommendation to the Director of Learning Resources.
- iv. Any party not satisfied with the decision may forward a letter of appeal to the Vice President for Instruction and Support Services.
- v. The Vice President of Instruction and Support Services will thereafter advise all concerned in writing of his/her action with respect to the complaint.

E. ARCHIVES

i. Selection Guidelines

The RCC Library maintains an Archive collection, which consists of a wide variety of materials in multiple formats. Selection for the Archive is based on multiple factors, including:

- a. Local significance
- b. Regional significance
- c. Subject matter focus, i.e., Robeson Community College
- d. Lumbee Tribe
- e. Tuscarora Tribe
- f. Uniqueness
- g. Rarity of material
- h. Historical context

ii Print Collection

Monographs, yearbooks, photographs/negatives, scrapbooks are all located in the Archive Suite on the second floor of the Library. Archive materials cannot be removed from the Library, but patrons are allowed in-Library access to them.

Robeson County and regional historical monographs and documents are identified and housed in the Archives Collection permanently.

Hard copies of serials (journals/magazines) are archived for two (2) years.

Newspapers are archived for thirty (30) days.

iii. Digital Collection

The RCC Library seeks to make its archived materials easily accessible to all citizens of the State of North Carolina. To that end, RCC participates in the North Carolina Digital Heritage Center's efforts to digitize North Carolina history for all citizens. Patrons can visit the RCC Library's Archives & Local History research guide for more information and for links to the Library's digitized collections online.

VI. CONFIDENTIALITY OF LIBRARY RECORDS

The RCC Library respects each user's right to privacy and confidentiality regarding information sought or received and resources consulted, borrowed, acquired, transmitted, or services provided. The Library complies with the North Carolina General Statutes regarding confidentiality of Library user records. The relevant North Carolina statutes are:

(1985, c. 486, s. 2.)

In addition, the RCC Library complies with all other privacy laws, including Article IX and the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).
