STUDENT SERVICES CONNECTION

FALL 2026

Sheila Ebri
Registrar/Director of Records and Registration

Dear RCC Students,

As your Registrar, I want to remind you that with just six weeks left in the semester, you are entering the homestretch of this academic chapter. This is the time when the finish line comes into view, but it is also when the workload can feel the heaviest. Look back at the progress you have made since day one; every lecture attended, assignment completed, and hurdle overcome has prepared you for this final push. Our office sees firsthand the grit it takes to manage your degree requirements, and we want you to know that your hard work and perseverance are truly recognized.

As you navigate these final six weeks, it is also time to look ahead and secure your path forward, as registration for the next term is officially open.

You got this!
